Employees Separation Check List Instructions

- * The Employee Separation Check List is to be completed for all separating or transferring employees.

- * When the employee separates from the University or transfers from a department, the form can be copied and sent to the employee showing the items issued to him or her.
- * It can also be used by the individual conducting the exit conference to record the University property when it is returned and also as a guide to be sure that all of the necessary steps have been taken to process the individual's separation correctly.
